

CALLING ALL EAST ASIAN ARTISTS

MAJOR COMMISSIONING OPPORTUNITIES
FOR LONDON'S CHINATOWN

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES: 3 MARCH 2008

As part of Chinatown Arts Festival 2008: Five Circles, London based arts organisation Chinatown Arts Space, and Chinatown's principle landowner, Shaftesbury PLC, are working in creative partnership to commission two major new pieces of exciting public art for London's Chinatown.

These are two significant opportunities for East Asian* artists to win a prestigious commission and see their work showcased in the heart of a major capital city. Artists are encouraged to create ideas for contemporary works that address both the heritage and history of London's Chinatown, and that celebrate the current diversity and dynamism of the area.

1. MURAL COMMISSION

Horse & Dolphin Yard / Value: £6k
East Asian* artists born or resident in the UK

2. SCULPTURE COMMISSION

Wardour Street / Value £20k
East Asian* artists worldwide (including the UK)
